ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In pursuing the study, I have received notable help and inspiration from my many well wishers. Actually the inspiration behind the entire work is my supervisor, Prof Abdul Musabbir Bhuiya of the Department of Arabic, Assam University, who has taken it as challenging task and my Co-supervisor Prof Asoke Kumar Sen of the Department of Physics, Assam University, who did not hesitate for a moment to be agreed to help and guide in conducting the research work on interdisciplinary topic of special nature relating the Qur'an and science. I owe my most gratitude to the former Vice Chancellor, Prof Tapodhir Bhattacharjee, Assam University, who inspired me like an ideal teacher who encourages his student and has bound me to invaluable gratitude towards him for his kind permission to take up the research work in the year 2008. Many other faculty members of Assam University viz. Prof Ramendu Bhattacharjee of the Department of Physics who is presently Pro Vice Chancellor, Diphu Campus, AUS, Prof. N.B.Biswas, Dean, School of Educational Sciences, Prof. Niranjan Roy of the Department of Economics, Prof Rama Bhattachrajee of the Department of Bengali, Prof W Ragumani Singh of the Department of Manipuri, Prof Abdul Razak T, Head, Department of Arabic, Prof. Gopalji Mishra of the Department of Social Work, Dr. Ashfaq Ahmed and Dr. Mustafijur Rahman of the Department of Arabic, Dr. Rama Prasad Biswas and Dr.Anindya Syam Choudhury of the Department of English and Janab Humayun Bakt of the Department of Sociology who have extended their constant support and inspiration.

I am sincerely grateful to Dr. Merina Islam, Assistant Professor, Department of Philosophy, Cachar College, Silchar, and Editor of bi-annual research journal Intellection, who extended her whole hearted support at various stages of this research work. I am also indebted to Dr. Jahangir Alom, Assistant Professor, Department of Arabic, Aliah University, Kolkata for his invaluable help and cooperation in collecting study materials from Aliah University Library. In fact, I am highly grateful to Prof Somnath Dasgupta, honourable Vice Chancellor, Assam University for his kind and constant support for continuing the research work.

Many of my non-teaching colleagues in the university and friends outside are also my great source of inspiration. I am indebted to Janab Md. Abdul Malique, Retired, Director, College Development Council, Assam University, Dr.Bibhas Dev, present Director, CDC, Assam University, Hazi Md. Abdul Jalil, Retired, Assistant Registrar, Assam University, Dr. Hussain Ahmed Choudhury, Junior Commissioned Officer, Indian Army, and Dr. A.B. Fuzayel Ahmed, Obstetrician & Gynaecologist, Silchar Medical College, Silchar for their constant inspiration and support at their level best.

I shall be failing in my duty if I do not mention the constant prayer of my mother and also father-in-law for my success in conducting the research work. Last but not the least, I owe an irremittable debt of gratitude to my family members as they suffer a lot for my inability to extend due cooperation in discharging the responsibility as guardian and many times my children remain deprived of their due love, care and affection of their father. My wife Mrs. Begum Rashna has invaluable contribution, as she provided me required environment for this hard work shouldering many household responsibilities and without her whole hearted support, I could not even continue the work. Lastly I thank Allah, the Almighty, the Creator and Sustainer of the universe, who has given me, required physical as well as mental strength to complete this extensive work successfully.

Sd/-
(Abul Hassan Chaudhury)

Assam University, Silchar
Date: 31st August, 2013