ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As I write this acknowledgement, I, hereby thank God, for His blessings during the course of my research work and being my ever-present strength.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Swapan Kumar Dutta, my supervisor who had supervised my thesis with a lot of patience and understanding. Despite his busy schedule, he gave me so much time for guiding my Ph.D. His erudition and characteristic unassuming style provided inspiration and encouragement to me. Without his exceptional generosity and scholarly support, this thesis would not have been possible. He even helped me to overcome hurdles in my personal life and to sustain in the difficult phases of my life. I am deeply indebted to him for his help and support that he provided me with throughout this study.

I express my gratitude to Prof. N.B. Biswas, Dean of School of Education, Prof N.N. Pandey, Head of the Department of Education and to all the staffs of the Department of Education for all their academic and administrative support.

I also thank the Library Staff of Assam University Silchar, Gauhati University and Omeo Kumar Das, Institute of Social Change and Development, Gauhati for permitting me to use their library during my work.

I am immensely thankful to K. Babu Singha, L. Manglemba Singha, Th. Dhirendra Singha and K. Bijon Singha for their kind co-operation and suggestion in the completion of this work. I am also thankful to Th. Dhirendra Singha for translating my tools into Manipuri language and also my friend Anushree Bhattacharjee for translating my tools into Bengali language and those respondents of the blocks who has responded with great interest and transparency.

No words can express my heartfelt gratitude to my parents who have been equally involved in this study as their constant support and blessings helped me to make steady progress. I also owe a lot to my in-laws for their kind co-operation and constant encouragement and a huge thanks to all my extended family members without whom this study would not have been possible.

I would also like to thank my friends Sutapa, Vijeta, Amal and Shantasree for their immense support and contribution, encouraging me and helping me in completing my thesis.

Words fail to express my gratitude for my husband and my two children-Anshu and Shanil for their continuous support, understanding me, giving me enough time to complete my study and encouraging me even in times of stress and strain. Again, I would like to kindly thank everyone involved with this work without which my work would have been incomplete.

Anita Singha
