ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

First of all, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to my supervisor Professor Dr. B. Ruma Sharma, Professor, Department of Visual Arts, Assam University, Silchar for her expert guidance and consistent support throughout the course of the research work without which this work will not have been in the present shape. I am also grateful to Professor G.P. Pandey and Professor Buleshwar Mate, Dean, Abanindranath Tagore School of Creative & Communication Studies and all faculties of the Department of Visual Arts, Assam University, Silchar for their valuable advises, support and comments.

I am indebted to the University Grants Commission, New Delhi for their uninterrupted financial assistance through the scheme of Rajiv Gandhi National Fellowship for Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribe Students till I join my present job in NIFT without which, it would have been impossible for me to complete the research work.

I am also expressing my deep sense of gratitude to Sh. Bridge Mohan Sharma, Associate Professor, Sculpture Department, Delhi College of Art, New Delhi, Dr. Jangkhomang Guite, Department of History, Assam University, Silchar, Dr. Pauthang Haokip, Department of Linguistics, Assam University, Silchar and Dr. Marykim Haokip, Department of Linguistic, Assam University, Silchar for their valuable comments and suggestions.

It also gives me a great pleasure to offer my gratefulness to Ms. R.R. Marak, Director (i/c), NIFT Shillong, colleagues and staff of National Institute of Fashion Technology, Shillong, for their valuable support and encouragement to complete my research work in time.

My deep gratitude to Shri Y. Nabachandra Singh, Principal, all teaching and non-teaching staff of Imphal Art College, Imphal, all my interviewee senior citizens and craftsman of the village (cannot mention all their names because of large in number) for their precious interaction and information they rendered for my research. I am also thankful to all contemporary Kuki artists, for their supportive measures during personal interview or online interview.

My gratefulness also goes to all my friends for their encouragement and supportive comments in the university and in the society. Mr. Seiboi Haokip, Secretary General of Kuki Students' Organisation, General Headquarters for his support and rendering all sorts of help during my field work at G. Gelbung Village who walk with me more than 50 KM by foot in the interior of Churachandpur District, Manipur.

Last but not the least, I would like to express my very special thanks to my father late Yamkhopao and mother Nenghat for being inspiration for this research work, Mr. & Ms. Seikholet Haokip, Mr. & Ms. Mangkhothang, Mr. & Ms. Hemkholal, my sister Mary Ngaizalhing, for their constant support in every way. My special gratitude also to my wife Ms. Kimchin L. Haokip, who sit beside me whole night whole day to complete this research writing by encouraging and providing all my daily needs.
