ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

At the outset of this writing, I thank the Almighty, who enabled me providing with the mental and courage to overcome the hurdle and misfortunes, I had to face at my working place, Karimganj, to complete the long process of this laborious work in time.

I express my sincere reverence to the esteemed teachers Prof. Abdul Musabbir Bhuiya, Dean SKC school of English and foreign language studies, Prof. Abdul Rasak T., Head of the Department of Arabic, Dr. Ashfaq Ahmad, Associate professor, Department of Arabic and Dr. Abdul Quddoos, Assistant Professor, Department of Arabic, Assam University, Silchar. They used to stimulate me for undertaking a research on a topic, similar to the present study. Their valuable suggestions advices and inspirations had forced me into going a long way before I reached my goal.

I must take the opportunity here to express my gratitude to my supervisor Dr. Mostafizur Rahman, Assistant Professor, Department of Arabic who despite of tight schedule spent his valuable time on such a humble fellow like me. It would have not been possible to complete the work without his scholarly advice and knowledge guidance in the various steps. My expression of thanks and gratefulness is quite insufficient for his nobility, greatness and sacrifice.

I am indebted to a number of scholars and enlightened persons, who have encouraged and given valuable suggestions and advices me to reach my goal. I do acknowledge the help and cooperation of many universities, organizations, institutions and libraries inside and outside the state.

My sincere thanks are due to Dr. Mostafizur Rahman for this painstaking mission, as my friend, philosopher and guide. In this way, I am grateful to a host of my colleagues, friends and well-wishers who provided me with different materials, information and assistance in various steps of this work. Here, it is not possible to mention the name of all.
